THE ROCKEFELLER INSTITUTE FOR MEDICAL RESEARCH

66TH STREET AND AVENUE A
NEW YORK

May twenty-fifth,
1 9 2 6.

My dear Inayat Khan:

It was exceedingly kind of you to invite me to hear you lecture, through Mrs. Frye, and I appreciate your thought of me very much. Unfortunately, I am leaving for France early in June, to be gone for several months. Such a prolonged absence necessitates the completion of a great deal of work, and I find it impossible to make any engagements before I sail. I am indeed sorry not to have the pleasure of seeing you again before you leave America, but hope that we may welcome you to New York in the not too distant future. If every moment of my time were not taken, I should venture to ask if you could spare the time to come to the Institute for a little chat, but I am even denied this hope of seeing you.

With kindest regards, and best wishes for your voyage, believe me

Yours very sincerely,

a Carrel
